

ADDITIONAL COSTS THAT MAY APPLY

COLUMBUS DOG CONNECTION

- All dogs and cats will be examined before surgery.
- If older age or health are a concern, we may not perform surgery if we feel they are not a good surgical candidate.
- Flea prevention may automatically be applied if your pet has heavy flea infestation at cost to you.

Enlarged Uterus Fee (EUF)

Can be result of a dog that is pregnant, in-heat, overweight, had multiple litters, or has mild infection.

Under 50 lbs $30
Over 50 lbs $60

Pyometra

Severe infection of uterus. Price is at discretion of veterinarian.

Variable

Different Anesthetic Fee

Brachycephalic Breeds (Boxers, Boxer mixes), pets 7 yrs and older, cardiac patients

$10

Extra Suture Fee (As needed basis)

For obese or in-heat dogs, that require additional suture material

$10

Cryptorchid

Testicles have not fully descended for male dog/cat

Cost of neuter + full price of spay

Other Surgical Fees

Additional fees may apply for: IV fluids, antibiotics, anesthesia time, pain medication, etc.

Variable

Rabies Vaccine

If a pet does not have written proof of a current Rabies vaccine, it will be given on the day of surgery.
Rabies Certificate on paper or digital copy required, TAGS NOT ACCEPTED.

$14

Umbilical Hernia

Dewclaw Removal for Dogs (Rear side and unattached only)

$20

$30 per side

Fractionious Animal Fee (Difficult to handle/restrain)

$30+

Already Spayed

Pet is found to be already spayed during surgery $75-158
Pet has a tattoo/scar located after sedation $15

Declined Surgery

If your pet is declined for surgery due to health complications, a mininum $15 exam fee will apply, plus any additional costs such as vaccines given.

$15+

Euthanasia

$50

Communal Cremation

$65

Emergency exam

$30+

Overnight fee

If your pet is not picked up from surgery by the time our staff is leaving. Please note, any dogs not picked up will be taken to the Franklin County Dog Shelter.

$50+